MRS. KATE GILBERT

One of the most beautiful events that ever graced society was that of yesterday afternoon, when the door of Dr. and Mrs. von Keller's magnificent home was thrown open and their hosts of friends were invited to enter the threshold. The occasion was to announce the engagement of their daughter, Beatrice Irene, a young lady of rare charm, who has the faculty of winning one's admiration even on first acquaintance. The home was a vision of beauty, in a color motif of old rose and silver. The lights of the chandeliers in the living room and dining room were hooded in the old rose color, throwing a mellow light on the scene of gladness. Ferns and cut flowers adorned the home on every side. At the door, the guests were met by Mrs. Max Westheimer and Mrs. Will Potter, who introduced them to the receiving line, in which Mrs. von Keller, in a lovely costume of silver gray crepe de chine, stood at the head, and next to her, Miss Beatrice, attired in a becoming gown of white net over pink crepe de chine. From the receiving line, the guests were passed on to the library, where Mrs. Morris Sass and H. P. Nichols presided over the guest book, and on registering they were each presented with a small envelope containing a heart, and on the heart the announcement, which read:

Dr. and Mrs. F. P. von Keller
Announce the engagement of their daughter Beatrice Irene
to Donald Malone Bretch
of Hobart, Okla.
June, 1916.

From the library the guests were shown into the dining room, where a large silver basket filled with roses adorned the center of the table, and the color scheme was carried out in the refreshments served. The out-of-town visitors were Miss Allie Breeding of Lexington, Okla., and Miss Lottie Taylor of Norman, both classmates of Miss von Keller at the University.

A Fine Aid For Mother-to-be

We are all greatly indebted to those who tell their experiences. And among the many things which we read about and are of immediate importance to the expectant mother, is a splendid external remedy called "Mother's Friend." This is applied over the muscles of the stomach. It is deeply penetrating in its influence. Mothers everywhere tell of its soothing effect, how it allays pains incident to stretching of cords, ligaments and muscles. They tell of restful comfort, of calm, peaceful nights, an absence of those distresses peculiar to the period of expectancy, relief from morning sickness, no more of that apprehension with which so many young women's minds become burdened. It is a splendid help. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" from your nearest druggist. Ask your husband to get it for you. Then write to Bradford Regulator Co., 468 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a very handsome and instructive book. It is filled with suggestive ideas of great help to all women interested in the subject of maternity. And best of all are some letters from mothers that are real inspirations. Write today.

Choose a Wooltex-Shrunk Wash Skirt—It Fits When You Buy it; It Fits After You Launder It.

When you buy a summer wash skirt, you shouldn't have to make it over after it is laundered. You've doubtless had the experience and know the annoyance it causes you, to say nothing of the uncertain results. The only washable skirt that can be depended upon ALWAYS to fit, is one in which the materials, even to the belting, are pre-shrunk, the Wooltex way.

Launder them every week, if you wish. When they come back from the laundry, you'll not have to put on a new waist band or let out the hem. Fashionable, smartly tailored and beautifully fitting are the Wooltex tailored summer skirts.
